

TRIBULATION DREAM 1980

This is a summary of someone's dream forty-four years ago.

As soon as he had fallen asleep, a dream started with a very loud sound, as a sound of a horn from a car of the 1970's. It was piercing to the ear and lasted a long period of time. He was given the opportunity look from heaven and see many graveyards. He was brought very close to these graveyards, and what he saw was a very unusual thing; the dirt was breaking open violently and people were coming out of the graves. He saw resurrected people coming out of the graves. The condition they came out of it was very unusual: one cemetery plot headstone would have a person come out of the dirt and one next to it would not. It seemed to be not just random but kind of a categorized launching so to speak of these people out of the dirt. Again, it was very violent; it was almost as though the dirt was receiving a small explosion or something and breaking over and when people begun to come out, there were two things about their appearance: the clothes they were wearing seemed to be like a choir robe, kind of like a long dress, a cloak almost hanging off them but in the middle of the day it was like those outfits that entertainers were when they were under the lights. Their outfits and their person were brighter than the sun. He could see the brightness of these people coming out. Men, although they had these robes on, appeared to be very masculine; When women were resurrected, they look very feminine. Older people would come out with the appearance that they were old, but they weren't old. You could tell that they had lived a full life, maybe 75 or 80 years, their lost hair was back again; they looked mature, they didn't look aging; young people were resurrected and although, they looked very young, they weren't very young; there was a maturity about them.

(These resurrected people were the ones who were born-again. They took part of the first resurrection according to Revelation 20: 6: Blessed and holy is the person who takes part in the first resurrection! Over them the second death exerts no power or authority, but they shall be ministers of God and of Christ, and they shall rule along with Him a thousand years (Rev. 20:6); Isaiah 26:19: Your dead shall live; the bodies of our dead shall rise. You who dwell in the dust, awake and sing for joy! For your dew is a dew of light and the earth shall cast forth the dead again; for on the land of the shades of the dead, You will let Your dew fall (Isaiah 26:19; the reminder of the dead were not restored to life again until the thousand years were completed... (Rev. 20:5a).)

All the sudden, the people that came, they just disappeared. As soon these people disappeared, mass hysteria began to hit the earth. People had the appearance of absolute despair, there was pandemonium everywhere, there was mass chaos, lawlessness and fear was working everywhere. He was able to see many quadrants of the earth; all the globe was experiencing this. As the mass pandemonium permeated society, there was a very unusual event that happened; TV, telephone, radio and this very unusual communicator devise, was able to see into many homes; they were white boxes that looked like televisions. When he saw this, they were in every home in the USA. It looked as if television was playing through them. All those media devises were shut down for about a two-week period. He knew now what he was seeing was personal computers in people's homes. The television communication was down for a period of time. This shut down alarmed people and lasted for about two weeks. Can you imagine all your telephone, computers, televisions and radio being shut down for a two-week period of time? Can you imagine the hysteria in all the businesses? He was shocked at the current events; events that were hard to describe, because lawlessness and fear began to permeate society completely. After two weeks' time, television and radio started up again. However, it was completely different than it was previously. The broadcast was bombarded everywhere. It was depicting a soon to come new government and leadership, a man would emerge to lead the world. He finally came on the scene and spoke with great eloquence and charisma; he was soothing and promised answers to all current issues; this man was soothing and extremely convincing; he was able to solve nearly all problems; he was a consummate communicator. He explained that the removal of all those people was God's judgment upon them. This individual was rallying the globe. It was very, very frightening. Almost immediately, he begun to communicate through large screen televisions that were strategically placed where general populous met. This was the norm; now what was strange about this was that this man's speeches for the whole world was new times for us human beings. New directives for global peace and the need to give up citizenship for world citizenship. He continually and constantly spoke of world order in the benefits of all men growing together in peace. He could do signs and wonders and fix all the problems, I will never forget his face, (he said). His face was almost supernatural in appearance; he was almost too perfect; he was the most handsome man I'd ever seen. He had everything going together for him, he had kind of chisel kind of look to his face; everything about his appearance was almost perfect. When he spoke, he had a very strange quality about him.

(Paul said, The coming of the lawless one, the antichrist is through the activity and working of Satan and he will be attended by great power and with all sorts of miracles and signs and delusive wonders- and by unlimited seduction to evil and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing because they did not welcome the Truth but refused to love it that they might be saved; therefore, God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make the believe what is false in order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe in the Truth, but took pleasure in unrighteousness (II Thess. 2:9-12).)

At staggering rates, people were buying right into this plan that this man was releasing onto the air ways. No one was fighting, no one was saying anything publicly. The air waves were controlled by this man. He heard the words "new order", "world order" and "new times", but he never heard "new world order." At this point of the dream some strange things begun to happen. The whole world was experiencing a chaos that was permeating society. No one was hiding from this; it was engulfing the entire globe. He was able to see into different regions and continents; it seemed that the whole world had become a third world nation, completely behind the times with no ability to process what was going on the earth. The despair everyone was experiencing was as if they had just left their mother's funeral. People appeared to be grieving and desponded.

Someone had told him that the end of the world had come in and they were not prepared for the time of the Lord. One of them who was left behind, began to evangelize him and show him the need to repent of his sins and his sinful nature. He prayed with him and joy begun to fill him. This man had a small following with him, who had accepted the Lord through him.

(Probably one of the 144,000 Jews from every tribe left to evangelize the world, according to Revelation 7:1-8).

A strange thing was happening at that time on the earth: There were babies being abandoned everywhere, almost in every street corner, babies were abandoned left in their babies' seat. strange because they were from infancy to sixteen to eighteen months. But there wasn't any baby at the age of two. (These were babies born at the time of tribulation, perhaps at its second year). They pick-up many children everywhere to take care of them. He joined that group of people, because they seemed to be the only ones that had peace at that time. Some very unusual things were happening with this group of people; it was amazing how they could meet physical needs and lead people to Christ.

This point in the dream, things begun to shift. The picture in the money was moved a little bit and there was a blank space on it. He was shown in the dream that the cash would carry bands in it that could be traced as to whom was transacting the cash. Our check can be traced. That was the ultimate control. He saw money that was tracked. On his way to make a business transaction, in his dream, there was a very unusual thing that happened while He was going to the bank; across the street from the bank there was a large multi-story building. This was a triangle looking building. It was all glass in its appearance. An earthquake begun to shake this building; it fell over and killed about two hundred people. This earthquake was massive and he knew with the globe shaking, that was a worldwide earth quake that hit and multiple millions of people lost their lives. The world was completely stunned; it could not be measured. Some regions were so destroyed that they never bothered to send rescuers in. That's how devastated they were. This destruction reached the globe. This earthquake that hit, caused a massive change in weather patterns. Weather patterns completely changed: winter became summer and summer winter, and you might have a day of snow, a day of heat; the world was in total chaos in its weather patterns. Predicting weather was totally impossible. Some unusual things begun to happen almost immediately: crops were destroyed, causing droughts and famine. The most fertile areas were totally destroyed with drought and famine. Places that were fertile, were now area deserts; it was almost immediately. Thing that seemed strange to him was that the weather seemed to have its own mind. It was manipulated by the earth being shook by its axis. He saw the earth shaking like a drunken person trying to walk.

(Isaiah predicted in chapter 24: Behold, the Lord will make the land and the earth empty and make it waste and turn it upside down and scatter abroad its inhabitants; the land and the earth shall be utterly laid waste and utterly pillaged; for the Lord has said this; The earth is utterly broken, the earth is rent asunder, the earth is shaking violently; the earth shall stagger like a drunken man and shall sway to and fro like a hammock; its transgressions shall lie heavily upon it, and it shall fall and not rise again.)

Right about the time that this earthquake hit, unusual things begun to happen with law. He begun to see local municipalities no longer having police departments; but military policies driving very unusual looking vehicles; similar to what is now called Humvees. The military police were able to get in the Humvees and use on board computers to get information; at the same time that he saw this, he saw also street light stands; on the top of them there were little cameras, little white oval cameras. In the dream, it was revealed to him that these cameras knew the where's abouts of every vehicle. These military police were peacefully parked on every corner. State lines could not be crossed without papers. This new leader begun to be on television again; and no one resisted the implementation of his policies. No one stood up to challenge him. No one in America started a revolution.

Television sets not only broadcasted and transmitted programing, but they had the capacity to send signals about you in your living room. He was able to see people watching television sets in their homes and their movements and conversations were being monitored. It didn't have to be on, it just needed to be plugged in. TV made after 1992, could in fact watch you. So many people could be easily monitored. TV broadcasted continually, almost daily explaining and encouraging people to ally themselves with this new order, in order to be saved from all life's troubles. This was what this man (the antichrist) said every time he came on TV The new order was told to have all the answers to problems and the leadership necessary to bring the change to cause the world finally to become the globe of peace. This he heard over and over. This was 1980 when he had this dream and it was publicized many years later.

Jacinta's comments:

This is a summary of someone's dreams of forty-four years ago. Think about how the political paths are taking the world to the fulfillment of its end, just before the church of YAHSHUA will be taken out of this world. Paul defines this man, as the anti-Christ- the lawless one who is through the activity and working of Satan and will be attended by great power and with all sorts of miracles and signs and delusive marvels and by unlimited seduction to evil and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they did not welcome the Truth but refused to love it, that they might be saved. Therefore God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make them believe what is false, in order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe in the Truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness (II Thess. 2:9-12); Daniel 11:36 says: And the king shall do according to his will; he shall exalt himself and magnify himself above every god and shall speak astonishing things against the God of gods and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished, for that which is determined shall be done... (Rev. 13:16-17): Also he compels all both small and great, both the rich and the poor, both free and slave, to be marked with an inscription [stamped] on their right hand or on their foreheads, so that no one will have power to buy or sell unless he bears the stamp (mark, inscription), ([that is] the name of the beast or the number of his name.

Time is running fast to that time of tribulation. You do not have to face it, if you accept the sacrifice YAHSHUA made to save you from hell. A purchase paid with His own blood. Be knowledgeable of His Word, which gives us instructions and guidance to be prepared for Him, when He comes to save His bride from this terrible time of tribulation. Be ready, once again, I say, Be ready!
